

Grand Ridge and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. George Walking of West Main street entertained a number of their friends from Ottawa at their home Tuesday evening where a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. Walking lived in Ottawa preparatory to coming to this village to make their permanent home.

The dance given by the Farm Ridge Dancing club Tuesday evening was a real success. The music was furnished by the village orchestra which is fast coming into prominence as musicians.

Mrs. N. R. Langley and family were Stretcher shoppers recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parmelee motor to Dwight the first of this week, where they spent the day with relatives.

The entertainment and social held at the Yale school, two miles east on Friday evening, was fairly well attended. The pupils gave a very good program which was of a varied type. Each number was well rendered, affording much credit to both pupils and teacher. Refreshments were served. The amount reported to have been taken in was $25.

It is reported that Ed Greenleaf has gone to Hot Springs, for the benefit of his health. Mr. Greenleaf is said to be suffering from a very severe attack of rheumatism. His friends hope the treatments at the springs may result in a speedy recovery.

Miss Sydney Smith of West Main street is the possessor of a new bicycle which she is enjoying these fine October days. It has been reported that Sydney has sold her pony and now devotes her time to the new bicycle.

Mrs. H. H. Mulford and Mrs. C. H. Hammond and daughters were Ottawa callers on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Savill were dinner guests the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leht, on South Blounting street.

Miss Vera McCombs was a recent dinner guest with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Antrim on West Main street.

Herman Leopold and sister of Ottawa spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fogie.

The weather has been decidedly warm the past week for corn husking. A number of farmers have started husking in this vicinity.

J. W. Antrim has been in Kansas for several days, looking after business interests.

Mrs. Nellie Langley was a village caller Monday afternoon.

It has been rumored that the Standard Oil are going to put up a service station here. This will be quite an accommodation to our little village if it materializes, which it is hoped it will.

Mrs. John Moss of Lincoln, Neb., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. J. Bate, left for Chicago the latter part of the past week for a visit with friends.

Word has been received here stating that Louis Ball of Fayette, O., had submitted to an operation for appendicitis last week. Their friends here are hoping that he may speedily recover. His sister, Miss Mae, underwent a like operation only a few weeks ago. The latter, we are glad to report, is herself again.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hunter of Selvan avenue were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowermaster of South Ottawa. Mrs. Hunter also called while in the city on Mrs. Kisser at Ryburn hospital, where she is recovering nicely from her recent operation for gall stones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Read of East Liberty street, have as their guests the former's sisters, Mrs. Laura Nelson of Indiana and Mrs. Ellen Gallup of Louisiana. The family reunion is a decidedly pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Peterson motor to Harvey, Ill., where they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stiles. The latter was sister of Mrs. Peterson.

Mrs. Circle, wife of Rev. Circle, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is reported on the sick list.

P. K. Hook, W. H. Rockwood and George Rozeaman have gone to Virginia on a business and sight seeing trip.

H. M. Glazier, road commissioner for the township of Farm Ridge, together with a number of farmers from this section, left for Wisconsin where they will attend a better roads meeting. County Adviser I. S. Brooks headed the La Salle county delegation in the movement.

Miss Sydney Smith was a recent visitor with Miss Lucene Hibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Jones and sons and Mrs. Jones' mother and sisters, Mrs. John Beth, and Miss Arlene Beth motor to Deer Park, Starved Rock and La Salle last Sunday. This weather being ideal the trip was enjoyed by the party.

Kent Woodward departed for Pontiac, Ill., Tuesday morning to look after business affairs. Mr. Woodward was located at that place preparatory to going to war since his return from France has been at the home of his father, W. C. Woodward. Mr. Woodward contemplates visiting his brothers Sam in Montana, Chester in North Dakota before returning to Illinois.

Wayne, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grub of the east side, had the misfortune while playing on Tuesday to fall and fracture one of his arms. He was taken to Stretcher Tuesday night, where the injured member was put under the X-ray and then set. Wayne will no doubt suffer some little discomfort.

Ralph Center of Burlington avenue is in Ohio this week looking after his farm interests.

Miss Mildred Rutan was a passenger to Ottawa Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Armstrong were guests Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Heckelheim.

The Good Will club held one of the season's most delightful meetings on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Keller south of town. The majority of the members were in attendance together with one visitor, Miss Emma Osborn. The ladies devoted a portion of the afternoon to sewing followed by a social hour, which was greatly enjoyed by playing of various games. The hostess served a novel luncheon, a feature of which was a waffle and marshmallow roast. It is needless to say that Mr. Keller proved himself a very charming hostess. The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Ed Lott.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross of Colorado and Mrs. E. A. Dearth of Decatur are visiting their sister, Mrs. G. L. Dearth, together with other local relatives.

Mrs. Jesse Dulla and children were village callers Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Carrie Madison of Burlington, Ontario was a recent all day guest with Ottawa relatives.

Miss Charlotte Wadsworth has returned from a very pleasant visit with Iowa friends.

Miss Nora Poundstone has assumed her duties as secretary in one of the Ottawa department stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crumrine motor to Stretcher on Friday.

Mrs. Arthur Ball and little daughter left Friday for a short visit with relatives at Victoria, Ill., before returning to her home in Ohio.

Miss Mildred Harrison was a recent overnight guest at H. I. Rogers' home.

Mrs. M. Z. O. Jackson are entertaining out of town company at this writing.

Mrs. David Hunter was a north-bound passenger on Friday.

Miss Ruth Lorenz of Stretcher spent Saturday with Miss Mona Crabbe at the M. E. paragon.

Mrs. John Beth was hostess at dinner on Thursday to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rolpin of Murrellville and Mrs. Arthur Ball and little daughter of Ohio.

Clark O. Pagle met with considerable loss last Friday. One of a valuable team of mares died. The animal was reported sick but a short time. The honorable Charles E. Woodward of Ottawa has been secured to address the members of the G. W. S. club at their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 28, at the home of Mrs. Everett Hodgson. Mr. Woodward will instruct the women how to vote. This meeting of the club promises to be one of special interest.

Mrs. Ellen Duder, who has resided for the past year on East Liberty street, moved her household goods Friday to the Otto Payne residence on Burlington avenue, recently vacated by F. W. Newman and family.

Mrs. Claud Jerie spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Mabel Black.

P. K. Hook and W. H. Rockwood have returned from a very interesting business and pleasure trip to Virginia and Pennsylvania. They brought back with them some prize winning products of the Fredericksburg, Va. fair. They are corn from their farms which was prize winning and we are also told they brought a thousand dollar white swine which is attracting considerable attention from the local townsmen.

Mat Pratt, who has been suffering with an infected finger on his left hand, has reported the injured member as improving.

Mrs. E. J. Lindsay and son Clark motor to Chicago Friday.

Lloyd Provance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Provance who reside near Richard's crossing, met with a painful accident a few days ago while cranking his Ford car. He broke his right arm. Medical attention was secured and while some discomfort still is experienced the injured member is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. Malcolm of Ottawa was a business caller on our streets Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vocum and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hodgson.

Sam Kilpatrick, a former Grand Ridge business man, now of El Paso, was renewing old acquaintances and looking after business here on Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Kiner of Stretcher was an overnight guest on Thursday with village relatives.

IN THE MOVIES

ARTISTS SOON TO APPEAR AT THE LOCAL HOUSES.

BEHOLD RUTH, THE SIREN

No, she is not Lorelei, luring her is she Calypso, causing Odysseus to capitulate. She is even more dangerous to susceptible hearts, and something ought to be done about it. Good gracious, isn't Ruth Roland dangerous enough in the ordinary course of her social-starring for Pathe? And here she is, as well as you see her in the photograph.

Mrs. C. H. Schobert and Mrs. Schobert of Papillion, Neb., spent Friday and Friday night with Mrs. L. C. Rinken.

Walter Fogie was an Ottawa house guest on Saturday.

A Halloween social will be held in the basement of the Methodist church Friday evening, Oct. 29. All cordially invited. This will be a magnificent social.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl England are Sunday dinner visitors Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wadley.

Mrs. Sarah Verhagen spent Friday with Mrs. Anna Carter.

Mrs. Emily Poundstone of the east side has taken rooms for the winter with Mrs. Jennie Rendall of Highland, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. John Read entertained the following guests at dinner on Saturday: The former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Read also his aunts, Mrs. Laura Nelson of Indiana and Mrs. Ella Gallup of Louisiana.

Mrs. George Chan was a village caller Friday.

Mrs. Schobert, Mrs. C. H. Schobert, who leave Monday night for their home at Papillion, Neb., together with Mrs. George Schobert and Mrs. Chris

OTTER CREEK

Rev. Willson, assisted by Rev. Stephen of Oswego, are holding revival meetings at the Evangelical church in Allen township.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kuhn entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. Kuhn and daughter Nellie and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kuhn of Grand Ridge last Sunday.

Lloyd Provance had the misfortune to break his right arm Tuesday morning when he attempted to crank his

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of Dr. H. H. H. H.

Aluminum Kitchen Ware

No need to enlarge on its delight—not indeed to anyone keeping house who has ever examined it. Aluminum in culinary use is the younger sister of royal copper and that in this familiar purpose is a dream of the past.

Would you be interested in equipping your kitchen with an aluminum set of the highest grade at an extremely low cost?

Then here is your opportunity.

We are placing one on sale comprising these prices:

- |  |                    |
|--|--------------------|
| 1 Teakettle.   | 1 Muffin Pan.      |
| 1 2-Piece Roasting Set.                              | 2 9-Inch Pie Pans. |
| 3-Piece Sauce Pan Set which makes five combinations. |                    |
| 2 Bread Pans.  | 1 Frying Pan.      |
| 1 Convex Covered 6 quart Kettle.                     |                    |

Price
$16.80

Sold on monthly payments if desired

This set is the well known Lifetime Ware made by one of the principal manufacturers of Aluminum and its quality of lastingness is described in its name. The number in the sale is limited and that should be sufficient of a hint to intending buyers

At Our Sales Rooms

Public Service Company

OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

Mutt and Jeff at the Races, which comes to the Gayety Theatre Thursday, October 28.

CHICAGO BUTCHERS

SUCCESSOR TO A. MUTTER.

Wednesday and Thursday SPECIALS

A shop of strictly Quality Meats. Every item on this list is the best that money can buy.

Pork Chops . . . 25c lb.

Corn Beef . . . 7c lb.

Creamery Butter 55c lb.

Veal Chops Native Veal 17c lb.

Beef Boil Native Beef 9c lb.

Lard, Pure Leaf, Rendered 23c lb.

Lard, Home Rend'd 18c lb.

Butterine, just like butter, 25c lb.

Steak, Native Round Stk., 20c lb.

Salt Pork, Sugar Cured, 17c lb.

Bacon, Chicago Butchers' 19c

Bacon, Sweet, Mild Sugar Cured

Don't forget there is but two more days left to win Chicago Butchers' Packing Co. special Sugar Cured Ham.

CHICAGO BUTCHERS

Packing House Market Co.
223 Main St. M. MUTTER, Mgr.
UNION MARKET.

POULTRY WANTED

We are in the market for all kinds of live poultry and will buy in the following towns:

Sheridan, Ill., Tuesday morning of each week. For prices at Sheridan call Geo. Ugland's store, telephone Sheridan No. 20.

Serena, Ill., Thursday morning of each week. For prices at Serena call Ed. Grandgeorge at the Farmers' elevator, Serena. Bell telephone R2. Northern Illinois telephone 312 on 80.

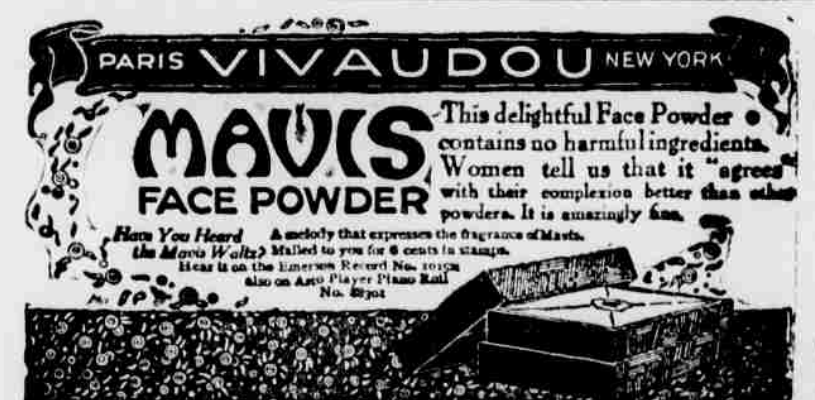

Millington, Ill. we buy Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and for prices at Millington call I. N. Waters, telephone Newark 62—J. I.

We pay cash for all kinds of poultry and will be at these towns regularly from week to week all through the poultry season.

Be Sure to Get Our Prices

before you sell your poultry elsewhere.

GEO. W. FREY & CO.

USE NATCO DRAIN TILE
Farm drainage demands durable tile. Our drain tile are made of best clay, thoroughly hard-baked, and guaranteed to last for 50 years. They are up to date, and are replaced every few years. Write for prices. Sold in retail lots. Also manufacturers of the famous NATCO IM-PROVABLE SILEO, Natic Building Tile and water sewer Pipe.
National Fire Proofing Company Ottawa, Illinois